

AMMUNITION MANAGEMENT

Proper ammunition management is critical to having a safe, secure, and reliable ammunition stockpile. Accidents, incidents, and the proliferation of ammunition during and in the aftermath of conflict starkly expose the dangers of poor ammunition management planning, analysis, and solutions. Janus Global Operations is a worldwide provider of ammunition and missile management services, including munitions planning and analysis, handling and storage, demilitarization, munitions surveillance, infrastructure repair and reconstruction, and training development and instruction. Regardless of the size and scope of your project, Janus offers full life-cycle ammunition logistics services anywhere in the world.
